Chamundi Hill Ropeway project shelved

District Minister Somashekar chairs Tourism Development meeting

Mysuru, July 6 (RK&KS)- The controversial ropeway project to Chamundi Hill which had attracted stiff opposition from environmentalists, nature lovers and also from the general public has been shelved, much to the relief of Mysureans who were concerned about unbridled development in an eco-sensitive zone.

Elected representatives vehemently opposed the project at the Tourism Development meeting chaired by Mysuru District Minister S.T. Somashekar held at the Office of Deputy Commissioner this morning.

Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) said that there was no need for a ropeway to Chamundi Hill as there are roads and steps to reach the hilltop. "There is a desperate need to conserve nature and the environment. The ropeway will have a negative impact on the environment which would cause imbalance to ecology," he said.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The COVID-19 pandemic has reiterated the importance of a robust primary healthcare delivery system. While people were applauding the tertiary care hospitals for the way they handled critical cases, Family Physicians were working to prevent complications and significantly reduced the burden on the hospitals. A strong presence of family doctors will also reinstate the sagging credibility of the medical fraternity. There's a need, and an opportunity, for young medical graduates to come forward and contribute to their communities by choosing Family Medicine as a specialisation.

The Academy of Family Physicians of India (AFPI) is working towards reviving the concept of specialist family doctors and to popularise Family Medicine as a clinical specialty among medical graduates. Specialist family doctors trained in Family Medicine will fill a critical gap in India's healthcare system — that of access to affordable and quality healthcare. — *Col. Floating body is meditating old man

Bangkok: A large crowd in Bangkok, Thailand, were shocked to find that an old man they saw floating in a dirty water, which they thought to be a corpse, was actually a person meditating.

But before authorities could get there, some of the people on the banks of the canal tried shouting at the floating body to make sure it was truly dead. One brave young man even went down into the dirty water, navigating through the garbage and the mud on the bottom, and when he touched the body, it sprung to life...

After helping the man out of the canal, an ambulance was summoned to do a health check-up of the old man, and the staff found him to be sober and in good general health, so he was sent home with the suggestion to find a better place to meditate.

Poor maintenance of Public Parks

Sir,

This is to draw the attention of the authorities concerned towards the poor maintenance of Cheluvamba Park near Akashvani Circle in Yadavagiri.

The children's play area is totally neglected and elderly people are unable to walk freely as the Park is not maintained properly. The green area is littered with garbage and dirt, the benches are broken, the lighting system is out of order, the walking track is damaged.

The metal railings and the playground equipment are rusting away due to neglect and also not only in Cheluvamba Park some of the other public Parks are also in utter neglect.

Therefore, I would like to request the authorities concerned and the area Corporators to look into this and improve the condition of the Parks for the convenience of the tax-paying residents.

Quake-hit villagers take turns to stay awake at night

District Disaster Officer says no cracks on earth observed in Kodagu; no need to panic

Kushalnagar, July 6 (Akshay& BCT)- People residing at Chembu village in Madikeri Taluk of Kodagu District, the epicentre of multiple earthquakes and the villages in the surrounding 25-km radius are spending sleepless nights at their homes and they wake up at the slightest noise, fearing another quake.

What has disturbed them is the failure of the Scientists and Geologists — who visited the village after over eight earthquakes of varying magnitudes stuck their village — in explaining the exact cause of the quake.

Though an Earthquake Monitoring Sub-Centre has been established at Chembu Government High School, this has not helped the authorities to at least mitigate the fears. Senior citizens, who have seen the changing landscape of the village and its surrounding areas feel that excessive commercialisation, land conversion and rampant quarrying activities are the main reasons for the quakes.

In some residential pockets, if it rains heavily in the day, villagers take turns to stay awake after dark so that someone will be there to alert them in case the earth shakes instead of being caught off guard. Many of them sleep on the verandas of their houses so that they can run in case there is an earthquake or landslides.

Past experience

Residents recall the natural calamity that took place in 2018-19 where mountains were washed away leaving houses and coffee estates buried under mud and slush. Not only Chembu village but many other villages like Devastur, Karike, Peraje, Sampaje, Makkandur and Mukkodlu too are living under constant fear.

They have alleged that the team of Geologists from Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre (KSNDMC) from Bengaluru who visited the villages neither gave any convincing answers on the reason behind the quake nor did they rule out future tremors. "They just came and established the Earthquake Monitoring Sub-Centre and left," said the villagers.

"We are relieved that the Earthquake Monitoring Sub-Centre has been equipped with a broadband Seismometer, Accelerometer, Accelograph, Digitiser, GPS and other accessories. Even Scientists Ramesh and Jagadeesh came here and assured us that the quakes are minor. But they did not explain to us why these tremors are happening," villagers said.

The team also visited neighbouring Sullia in Dakshina Kannada District and examined the cracks on the ground at Gulikkana that extended up to 200 metres. Over 10 families live there. Geological Survey of India (GSI) Senior Geologists Eijas Ahmed Bhat, Senthil Kumar Sukoch, Deputy Director of Mines and Geology Department, Mangaluru, B.M. Lingaraju and Geologist Dr. Sushma Shashi were part of the team.

Minor tremors

Speaking to Star of Mysore, District Disaster Management Expert R.M. Ananya Vasudeva, who is also the District Disaster Officer, said that people need not panic as the tremors are minor.

"This type of earthquake does not create any harm as the epicentre falls in Seismic Zone III. We have seen quakes in 1984, 2012, 2018 and so. Only in 2018, there were major floods and landslides as cracks were visible all over the forests and mountains. Soon after this year's quakes, we alerted the Revenue and Forest Departments to observe cracks in the forest areas and also on the revenue lands. But so far, there have been no reports of cracks," he said.

No threat to Harangi Dam

Ananya added that the district machinery was on high alert for any variations either in the form of excess rains, landslides, floods or quakes. On the perceived threat to the Harangi Dam out of these quakes, he said that while constructing the Dam, all factors including quakes would have been considered. Moreover, these tremors are minor and the Dams can withstand tremors up to 6 or 7 magnitudes on the Richter Scale.

KSNDMC Scientist Jagadeesh too dismissed the threat to Harangi Dam and said that the quake had an epicentre in Chembu and does not have the reach to hit the Harangi Dam as it is more than 50 kilometres away. Jagadeesh said that in the Himalayan region, hundreds of tremors have been recorded but there has been not a single landslide.

On the allegation that the Scientists were not able to ascertain the cause of the quake, he said that the Earthquake Monitoring Sub-Centre was recording every minor movement in the earth and a detailed analysis is required to study the tremors. "There is no need to panic and the Government has to decide on conducting a detailed study," he said.

One more team to visit today: Kodagu DC

Dr. B.C. Satish

Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Dr. B.C. Satish has said that one more team from the National Geophysical Research Institute (NGRI), a constituent research laboratory of the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), Hyderabad, will come to Kodagu today (July 6) to analyse the multiple quakes.

"We are in constant touch with the Scientists from Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre and a couple of video conferences have been held with them. The team will visit areas like Chembu, Karike, Bhagamandala, Sampaje and Sullia. They will also interact with the people about the reasons for the quake and precautions to be taken," he said.

Tonnes of driftwood and garbage float in Haradoor River

Trees that were uprooted in the floods and landslides in 2018 and 2019 are being washed away by flowing water now and many of them can be found at the Haradoor River. There are two bridges built across this river.

While the smaller bridge completely submerges even if it rains heavily for a day, the bigger bridge connects the two banks of the river. Now, most of the smaller bridge has been covered in driftwood and also garbage.

Though the Kodagu District administration has warned the locals not to enter the river to fetch the driftwood, they continue to do so, risking their lives as the wood can be used as firewood.

"Swami Vivekananda had a unique relationship with the Mysore Wadiyars and he decided — made a Sankalpa — to visit Chicago to represent India and Hinduism at the Parliament of the World's Religions in 1893. The tenth Chamaraja Wadiyar offered to sponsor the Chicago journey but Swami Vivekananda politely refused and said that he decided on the journey following his mother's command and he needs to seek his mother's approval to accept money from the Maharaja. After some days, Swami Vivekananda returned to Mysuru and took the money for his Chicago journey," Suttur Swamiji said.

10-year struggle recalled

President of Ramakrishna Ashram Mysuru Swami Muktidanandaji recalled the struggle to set in motion the Memorial construction. "It is a 10-year Sankalpa of Mysureans and today it has become a reality. We faced many hurdles and negativity but we stayed calm, confident that truth and the noble cause will prevail. Thousands of people cooperated with us and the place that was neglected for decades will pave way for a memorable cultural centre," he said.

"It will be an all-inclusive centre that will achieve the objectives of Swami Vivekananda as he envisioned for the Indian youths," he added.

MP Pratap Simha recalled the contributions of many individuals in making this event a reality. He recalled the writings and support extended by Star of Mysore and Mysuru Mithra Founder-Editor K.B. Ganapathy, who staunchly supported the Memorial.

Place of learning

MLA S.A. Ramdas said that history will be made once the Viveka Memorial comes up. "It will be a place of learning and will be in the surroundings of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Bhavan. It will also attract tourists who visit Palace," he opined.

MLA G.T. Devegowda, who also spoke, said "The place was mired in controversy and just for a few votes, politics was done, preventing the construction of the Memorial. Some people resorted to dividing the communities for the sake of publicity. Today, all hurdles have been cleared and the Memorial would come up in Mysuru."

MLA L. Nagendra said that the surroundings of the Memorial have many educational institutions and over 25,000 children studying there would benefit.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar said that the State and the Centre will extend all cooperation for the Memorial. "We have got orders to ensure that there are no hurdles for Viveka Memorial as this is a nation-building activity and will immensely benefit the youths. Politics has no place here," he assured.

Writers Dr. C.P. Krishnakumar (CPK) and Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa also spoke.

Other dignitaries who were part of the event were former MLC D. Madegowda, former Vice-Chancellor of Kuvempu University Dr. Chidananda Gowda, University of Mysore Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, Star of Mysore and Mysuru Mithra Founder-Editor K.B. Ganapathy, former MLA Vasu, former President of Mysuru Ramakrishna Ashram Swami Atmavidanandaji, Corporator Prameela Bharat, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, MyLAC Chairman N.V. Phaneesh, Jungle Lodges and Resorts Chairman M. Appanna, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham and City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta.

People who put hurdles in good work must be ignored: Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji addressing the gathering as noted novelist Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa, MLA G.T. Devegowda, Kappatagudda Shivakumara Mahaswamiji, Adichunchanagiri Shaka Mutt Seer Sri Someshwaranatha Swamiji, Ramakrishna Ashram President Swami Muktidanandaji, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, MLAs L. Nagendra, S.A. Ramdas and Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah look on.

Mysuru, July 6 (RKB&BCT)- Acclaimed writer and Saraswathi Samman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa said that good work in India will always have obstructions. He was addressing the gathering at the foundation laying ceremony for the Swami Vivekananda Memorial Cultural Youth Centre-Viveka Memorial in city this morning.

"Whenever someone does some good work for the society, there are people who put hurdles. Be it Viveka Memorial or the Rangayana. It is the same people who do not like to see progress. By obstructing good work, these people spread negativity. This attitude must go," he said.

"These people are everywhere and they put hurdles for every work. We have to be patient and proceed with single-minded dedication and perseverance. These people must be ignored. Ultimately, people will realise who is right and all the negativity will have no value and this will be a strong message," Dr. Bhyrappa said.

"The protesters lament that Kannada books do not sell. I would like to tell them that the Ramakrishna Ashram has brought out more than 600 books in Kannada and they are the highest-selling books. Take for example 'Badukalu Kaliyiri' the book written by Swami Jagadatmanandaji. It has sold millions of copies and has been translated into different languages," he said.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha said that Chamundi Hill should remain as a religious place and there was no need for any tourism development.

Pointing out that any tourism development at the Hill will slowly destroy the green space, Simha said that the Government was committed to leaving the ecology undisturbed. "We also honour public opinion that was against the project and the Hill will be retained as a place of worship and pilgrimage and not as a place of tourist interest," he said.

The MP alleged that many new houses were being constructed atop the Hill for which the Gram Panchayat and Zilla Panchayat gave approval. GTD told the MP to identify suitable land for Chamundi Hill residents to construct houses so that construction atop the Hill can be stopped. The MP responded and said efforts will be made to locate suitable land.

Talks were also held to constitute a Chamundi Hill Development Authority along the lines of the Male Mahadeshwara Hills Development Authority. Minister Somashekar said that he will raise the issue with Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. "Rs. 10 crore has been released to restore the landslide-hit Nandi Statue Road and works will begin soon after the rain stops," he added.

Somashekar, who gave a patient hearing to all the views, made an announcement that the ropeway project would be shelved.

Mysore Travels Association Hon. President B.S. Prashanth suggested using electric buses to Chamundi Hill as they neither emit smoke nor cause harm to the environment.

At the meeting, the Rs. 3.74 crore development works of Somanatheshwara Temple at Somnathpur were also discussed.

T. Narasipur MLA M. Ashwin Kumar, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, SP R. Chethan, DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy, ZP CEO B.R. Poornima, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Fulsome

Pronunciation: FULL-sum.
Meaning: Fulsome can be a positive term, as when it's used to mean "abundant, copious," or "full and well developed," but it has negative meanings too, such as "overdone" and "excessively flattering."
Origin: In the 19th century, fulsome was mostly a literary term used disapprovingly to describe excessive, insincere praise and flattery. This meaning is still current, but since the early 20th century fulsome has been increasingly used with far more positive meanings, among them "abundant, copious" and "full and well developed." The result is some amount of confusion: a phrase like "fulsome praise" used today without clarifying context may rightly be understood to mean either "abundant praise" or "excessive and obsequious praise." While some critics object to the pleasanter meanings of fulsome, they are in fact true to the word's origins: when it was first used in the 14th century fulsome meant "abundant, copious."
Example: "The county executive isn't opposed in principle to bonds for housing, but thinks county leaders need to have a more fulsome discussion about tradeoffs such debt would require." — Dan Brendel

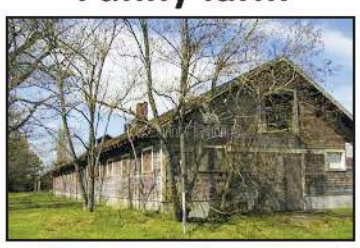
THE ODD WORD

Fanfaron

An empty boaster.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Funny farm



Meaning: The phrase 'Funny Farm' refers to a psychiatric hospital or insane asylum.
Origin: The phrase 'funny farm' came from the slang use of the word 'funny' to mean unusual or weird, and the description of mentally disturbed people as 'funny in the head.' An early use of the term 'funny farm' can be found in John Knowles' 1959 novel, A Separate Peace: "You might start to believe it, then I'd have to make a reservation for you at the Funny Farm."
Example: "If you don't stop acting so weird, they're going to send you to the funny farm."
